REPUBLICAN COUNTY CONVENTION.

In accordance with the foregoing, the Republicans of Mason county will meet in Mass Convention at the Courthouse in Maysville on Saturday afternoon, July 11th, at 2 o'clock, to select Delegates to the State Convention at Louisville.

WILLIAM D. COCHRAN, Chairman.

FOR some weeks the Advertisers have had such an "inning" that the Editor had to take to the woods. Now, however, he comes from his hiding; but if you have been reading and heeding the advertisements, it is quite certain that you have profited more than you would have done by reading the editorials.

IS IT in order to wonder how much BURNS FITZPATRICK got for defeating Justice in the Jett-White trials?

IF GOVERNOR BECKHAM would send Colonel EPH. LILLIARD, Jr., to bloody Breathitt he might subdue the fenthists.

GOVERNOR BECKHAM's Great and Good Friend Judge HARGIS of Breathitt county appears to be getting into the middle of a devilish bad fix.

THIRTEEN divorces were granted by a Louisville Court in one day; and yet there are persons who insist that 13 is an unlucky number.

IF BURNS FITZPATRICK, who hung the Jett-White Jury at Jackson, looks anything like his pictures in the papers, he ought to go off and hang himself.

By the transfer of their trials from Breathitt to Harrison county, it is to be hoped that JETT and WHITE have jumped out of the fire into the frying pan.

IT WAS eminently proper for the Servian Skuptchina, immediately after electing a gang of assassins as rulers, to unanimously pass a general amnesty law.

BURNS FITZPATRICK, the able Juror who saved CURT. JETT's neck from the halter, is of the private opinion that there were eleven awfully honest men on the Jury with him.

IT WILL be a wonderful spectacle if the civilized Governments of Europe permit the assassins of the late King, Queen and Ministry of Servia to proclaim themselves successors to the murdered rulers.

FRED. PAPE, who was blown up and killed in his factory at Cincinnati, is said to have carried in his pocket the recipe for manufacturing percussion caps for toy pistols, and that the formula was destroyed when his clothes burned off. It is hoped that this is all true, with the further hope that the recipe will remain lost forever.

OF COURSE, JETT's lawyer says he didn't have a fair trial in Breathitt county. He wouldn't be a lawyer if he didn't say that, inasmuch as he didn't succeed in freeing his client. But that self-same lawyer says his client will get a fair trial at Cynthiana—with the chances about 99 to 1 that he will be sentenced to hang. It is sincerely hoped that the trial will be fair, that JETT will be hung, and that the lawyer will be disappointed.

JUDGE BENNETT, a most excellent gentleman of Greenup, is the only declared candidate for the Republican nomination for Circuit Judge in this District.

A MOVEMENT is afoot to wipe Breathitt county off the map of Kentucky. THE LEDGER begs to amend by swiping out the whole Hargis and Redwine gangs at the same swipe.

THE most lamentable marine disaster of the half-year-old century was the recent defeat of the Harvard Varsity Crew by the Yale Varsity Eight on the raging Thames sewer.

IT IS said that the official records show that, by careful count, in the three years of Governor BECKHAM's Administration, executive clemency has been extended to more than 1,000 persons.

MR. S. A. ANDERSON, Clerk of the Ohio Circuit Court and former Editor of The Hartford Republican, is a candidate for Clerk of the Court of Appeals, subject to the action of the Republican State Convention at Louisville.

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT has decided to transmit to the Russian Government the petition of the B'Nai B'Rith Society, protesting against the treatment of the Jews at Kishinev and other points in Russia. As a rejoinder, it is barely possible that His Royal Nibs the Czarakoffsky may tell the President to tell the Governor of Kentucky to tell Judge REDWINE to tell Judge HARGIS to tell Sheriff CALLAHAN to tell his Deputies to tell CURT. JETT's assassins to quit shooting people in Breathitt county.

AT a meeting of Negroes in Chicago, called to protest against the lynching of colored men, the Rev. C. H. THOMAS advised his hearers that they should, if the hanging and burning of colored men is not stopped by the regular authorities, sell their coats and buy guns with which to defend themselves. Other speakers uttered similar sentiments; but not one word was said about the Negro ceasing his criminal assaults and the murder of white women, which have given rise to the too numerous lynchings and burnings, not only in the South but in the North as well. Stop the cause—and there'll be no longer the effect.

Political Pickings

GREATSKOFF GOODNESSKI!

Cincinnati Commercial Tribune.

Looks like they had something ovich for office over there.

CONSIDERATE ASSASSINS.

Louisville Evening Post.

They shoot their victims inside of the Courthouse in New York. In Breathitt they permit them to gain the open air before they fire.

GOVERNOR BECKHAM'S PARDONS.

Louisville Herald.

The Constitution of Kentucky says that the Governor's pardon record "shall always be open to public inspection." Governor Beckham says it shall not be. We have passed this difference of opinion up to the Courts of the state to see whether the Constitution or Governor Beckham is the source of power in Kentucky.

"MARKED MEN!"

Louisville Courier-Journal.

It has been the custom of the ruling outlaws of Breathitt county to maintain their power not only by holding and prostituting to their desperate ends the offices, but by threatening to murder, and carrying out their threats, those who refuse to do their bidding.

When any man was so careless or so honest and courageous as to displease them they "marked" him for assassination, and he was thereafter known as a "marked man," whose doom was sealed. And sooner or later the sentence thus passed upon him without Judge or Jury was executed. Those who passed it bided their time until they could drop him by a bullet fired either from ambush or behind his back in the sight of witnesses whose silence or perjury they commanded by threats of a similar fate.

That is why it was impossible, until the detail of troops to Jackson, to secure witnesses against these assassins or their tools, and why, even then, it was almost impossible to secure witnesses against Jett and White, two of the murderers of James Marcus.

And even now these witnesses, the Prosecuting Attorney and the Foreman of the Grand Jury which indicted this brace of assassins are known as "marked men."

But The Courier-Journal serves notice that there are other marked men of Breathitt county today. The men who have marked for assassination, or who are believed to have marked, Ewen, Byrd and others who figured in the trial of Jett and White, are marked by the people of Kentucky. The eyes of the state are upon them, and if they but lift a finger to carry out the vengeance they are believed to have sworn against those who dared to do their duty against them, they will be unable to escape the justice of an aroused Commonwealth.

Let them be warned. They are known. And if they heed to heed this warning they will be held to rigid responsibility for the result. And their trials will not take place in Breathitt county.

FARMER'S SALVATION.

See for yourself what it has done. Use the good judgment that the Lord gave you. Make your own figures. Listen to neither Minnie nor Trust agents. Be wise; figure for yourself. If you love the Trust and can afford the price, stick to them. If you feel that you cannot afford to work for their gain to your own detriment, then investigate Minnie Twine. The matter is up to you now. We have begged and plead with you the past eight months to look for your own interest. We shall beg no more. We have proven our position. The proof is before you in your own county. If you love the Trust so well that you can afford to make it a present of fifteen or twenty dollars each year, the matter rests with you and your posterity.

Read What Good Men Say

MORANSBURG, KY., June 26th, 1903.

To Whom It May Concern: This is to certify that I cut my crop of 35 acres of wheat with a Minnie Binder and Minnie Grass Twine at a cost of 7cts. per acre for twine. My wheat would average 25 bushels to the acre. The binder did the best work I have ever seen a binder do. I could not say too much for the Minnie and Minnie Grass Twine. I solicit communication from any one interested in harvesting.

GEORGE FRITZ.

FLEMINGSBURG, KY., June 26th, 1903. To Whom It May Concern: This is to certify that I cut 65 acres of very heavy wheat averaging about 35 bushels per acre with a Minnie Binder and Minnie Grass Twine. My twine cost me for the entire crop only $7 and I have some twine left. I could not have tied the same crop of wheat with fiber twine for less than twenty-two to twenty-four dollars. This means that I will soon save the price of my binder in twine. Farmers take notice.

As to the binder, it is perfection in every sense of the word and I broke nothing in the entire crop.

His Last Hope Realized.

From The Sentinel, Gelo, Montana.

In the first opening of Oklahoma to settlers in 1890 the Editor of this paper was among the many seekers after fortune who made the big race one fine day in April. During his traveling about and afterwards his camping upon his claim he encountered much bad water, which, together with the severe heat, gave him a very severe diarrhea, which it seemed almost impossible to check, and even in June the case became so bad he expected to die. One day his neighbors brought him one small goat of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy as a last hope. A big dose was given him while he was rolling about on the ground in great agony, and in a few minutes the dose was repeated. The good effect of the medicine was soon noticed and within an hour the patient was taking his first sound sleep for a fortnight. That one little bottle worked a complete cure and he cannot help but feel grateful. The reason for bowel disorders being at hand suggests this item. For sale by Jas. J. Wood & Son, Druggists.

A Lesson in Geography!

Below we give a map of the White Burley District, embracing counties in both Kentucky and Ohio. We would like for you to bound Mason county.

It is bounded on the North by the Ohio river; on the East by Lewis county; on the South by Fleming county; on the West by Robertson and Bracken counties; on the top by the best soil on earth, and on the bottom by China.

With such surroundings we desire to call your attention to a few attractive farms:

The Dan Morgan Farm of 348 acres on the Washington and Murphysboro pike.

The A. Brough Farm of 100 acres, adjoining the farm of E. C. Slack, near Fernleaf, Ky.

200 acres of fine land, 1½ miles from Mayslick, on the Laytham pike. This farm can be divided into two farms of 100 acres each.

The farm of S. N. Robinson, located in Charleston Bottom, containing 72 acres.

The Mrs. Belle Wells Farm of 102 acres, situated at Helena Station, Ky.

Let us hear from you, either by letter, telephone or a personal visit. Very truly,

Letters from Women

Cured by the use of Kodol are received daily. Their troubles nearly all begin with indigestion or other stomach disorder.

If the food you eat fails to give strength to your body, it is because the juices secreted by the stomach and digestive organs are inadequate to transform the nutrient properties of the food into blood. That is indigestion. The system is deprived of the amount of nourishment required to keep up the strength, and the result is that one or more of the delicate organs gradually grows weak, and then weaker, until finally it is diseased. Here a great mistake is made. That of treating the diseased organ. The best doctors in the land make this very mistake. Why should they? It is so easy to see that the trouble is not there.
